ORIGINAL COLLECTION

Where it all started: the original collection. Our very first collection ever produced and the first Dutch Oven in the world made from 100% certified recycled premium cast iron. Provided with the strongest enamel layer that makes it maintenance free. This heavy metal cookware collection is made from post-consumer materials, like train rails, old bikes, and prison steel.

A traceable Dutch Oven produced locally in Europe. This exclusive design has unique details like an engraved messing knob, a detailed stamp on the bottom and robust handles. It has thick edges and a thick bottom which makes it heavy metal but also ensures the perfect heat distribution. A collection created for lovers of food and design.

Premium quality iron
Strong enamel layer inside & out (maintenance free)
